

March 9, 2013

As a regular food truck visitor, I do not support these proposed regulations, which will basically eliminate the diversity of food trucks and the service they provide, along with the tax dollars they bring to the city. Because these trucks will move to vending in other states where the regulations are not this strict.

Mounir Elhilali